Inflation World's Top Problem: Ike

President Addresses Meeting of Governors of International Groups

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower told the free world's financial leaders today that world-wide inflation is one of their most pressing problems.

He said the fiscal experts and their "fellow citizens" must join in defending the value of their currencies.

"Inflation not only destroys the savings, pension and insurance policies of the frugal," he said, "its aftermath can be a depression which saps the strength and vigor of government, of industry and of people."

The President spoke before governors of the International Bank, the International Monetary Fund, and the International Finance Corp.

It was his first appearance in a busy round of speeches and conferences during a one-day break from his vacation at Newport, R. I. He flew here aboard the presidential plane Columbine III and was to return to Newport late today.

The President said there are certain "common sense aspects" of inflation which the world must "squarely face."

Those who are determined to have a continued, sound economy, he said, must ask themselves two things.

"First, how many of our personal and governmental demands and desires," he asked, "can we safely expect our economies to satisfy at one time?"

"... we cannot successfully put a continued overload on our resources," he said. "Rising prices have confirmed this economic axiom."

Eisenhower said the second question is "How much do we as individual nations pay ourselves for what we produce?"

"If our efficiency in production in the payments which we make for productive efforts of all sorts rises in step, there is no impetus to rising prices," he said.

"But if our efficiency does not increase, if our productivity does not rise, we as nations will tend to fall into the costly error of overpaying ourselves for the work we do."

Flu Outbreak Hits Schools In Michigan

By United Press

A flu outbreak in Michigan threatened to force the shutdown of schools in Port Huron today, but state health officials cautioned there is no cause for alarm.

At least three other Michigan cities, Saginaw, Detroit and Frankenuh, have been hit by a wave of respiratory illnesses, believed to be Asian flu.

National health officials, meanwhile, reported at least 15 deaths so far in the nation blamed directly on Asian flu or associated with it. The U. S. Public Health Service said most of the deaths were in California.

The service estimates that about 100,000 persons have been stricken by Asian flu in the nation.

At Saginaw, Mich., health authorities definitely identified the flu strain in an outbreak among pupils there as Asian flu. A similar outbreak hit Frankenuh.

At Detroit, about 30 youths in a juvenile detention home were sick with the flu.

Illinois health officials feared the Michigan outbreak would spread westward into Chicago and Illinois.

About 50 students at the University of Iowa in Iowa City are ill with the flu and tests were under way to determine if it was the Asian type.

The Asian flu first occurred in the U. S. at military posts. Since then it has spread to a number of states, with California, Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi among the hardest hit.

President Eisenhower Shows No Effects of Heart Attack 2 Years Ago

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer
NEWPORT, R. I. (UP)—President Eisenhower looks and acts today like anything but the man who suffered a heart attack two years ago.

He is playing 18 holes of golf daily, his figure is trim, his color ruddy and there is little external indication that he will be 68 years old next Oct. 14.

In the dark hours of Sept. 24-25, 1955, the President, sleeping in the second floor bedroom of the Denver home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud, suffered a coronary thrombosis. Seven weeks of hospitalization and many more weeks of convalescence followed.

Today, he lives more carefully than he did two years ago — he watches his diet and gets a mid day rest; he avoids heavier exertion and uses an electric cart on many golf holes. He avoids fatty foods, eats steak rather than bacon and eggs for breakfast.

By getting a lot of moderate exercise and being alert to the dangers of a heavy calorie diet, the President, according to his physicians and staff, appears to be in the best physical shape he has displayed in quite some time. His weight remains in the area of 170, he sleeps well and without sedation, takes little medicine except for anti-coagulants usually administered from time to time to heart patients.

His physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, says the President is in "great shape."

Mitchell Charges Democrats Are In Revolt Against 'Boss System'

PEORIA, Ill. (UP)—Stephen A. Mitchell, former Democratic national chairman has charged that voting Democrats in Illinois are in revolt against the "boss system" in state politics.

Mitchell, speaking Sunday, at a picnic of the Peoria-Tazewell County party organization, said the rebellion was especially strong in southern Illinois and in suburban parts of Cook County.

"The time has passed in Illinois when a majority of voting Democrats will accept hand-picked candidates served up to them from secret meetings by one or two leaders who even hand-pick the slate-making committees," Mitchell said.

He urged stronger support of the neighborhood political clubs as an answer to bossism.

"The time has come in Illinois when nothing less than the genuine democratic process will do," he said. "The average Illinois Democrat has had enough of the old time boss system that once upon a time could win elections but was never democratic."

Mitchell said a "protest against outworn methods and autocratic control of the party members by a few leaders" has spread through out the state.

"But the protest is especially loud and bitter in downstate Illinois and in the suburbs of Cook County and it ought to be," he said.

A club-like organization, the Democratic Federation of Illinois, is to be organized at Springfield Saturday. Leaders in the federation movement have said they want to work with, but separately from, the regular party organization to attract more persons to the party.

Last week a Democratic state county chairmen's organization was formed at Springfield, and the meeting was marked by criticism of the new federation on grounds it was trying to "take over" the party from the regular organization.

Prominent in formation of the county chairmen's group were downstate leaders who have consistently been critical of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley and other Cook County leaders for hand-picking candidates and giving downstate no voice in their selection.

Dr. and Mrs. Fanning, who is the former Viola Gaskins, had taken the child to Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for a heart operation, hoping to rectify an ailment the child had had all of his life.

Funeral services were held in Naperville.

Boy, 12, Held for Killing Father With 7 Pistol Shots, Fleeing in Car

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (UP)—Authorities today held a boy, 12, who admitted he killed his father with seven pistol shots and then fled in the family car.

The boy, Jerry Fulk, who lives on a farm northeast of here, was arrested near Paris, Ill., Sunday by a deputy sheriff who halted him because he appeared too young to drive.

The youth readily told Deputy Sheriff Pierce Short he killed his father, Clifford, 38, because his father beat him with a heavy army belt and abused his mother and six brothers and sisters.

Jerry handed over to Short a .38 caliber pistol which he said he stole, along with a number of bullets, from the home of an uncle Saturday.

Police quoted the boy as saying he practiced shooting at squirrels to familiarize himself with the gun, and then Sunday morning asked his father to accompany him to look at a cornfield.

"He was walking ahead of me

Pate Farm Is Sold for $1,600

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (UP)—A 79-acre farm near Carbondale to which turncoat GI Arlie Pate returned last December after a stay in Red China was sold for $1,600 Saturday at a master in chancery sale.

Arlie's father, Daniel, had filed for partition of the farm.

Arlie left home with a brother after they had fought with their father over proceeds from the sale of livestock.

Daniel Pate's wife, Zady, and two other children also left the farm after the fight.

Money from the sale will be divided between Pate and his wife, who has sued him for divorce.

Morris B. Sachs, Ex-Candidate for Governor, Dies

CHICAGO (UP)—Morris B. Sachs, well-known clothing merchant and colorful politician, died today in his sleep. He was 61.

Sachs was Chicago city treasurer.

A Democrat, Sachs won his city job in his first election and his margin was so heartening he toyed with the idea of running for governor a year ago despite defeat in the primary.

He was known to Chicago area dwellers and beyond through the amateur hour programs his firm sponsored. Such popular singers as Mel Torme and Frankie Laine got their big-time start on the program.

Death was attributed to a heart attack.

In taking over the city treasurer's office, Sachs showed his independence from the Cook County Democratic organization and trimmed down the number of people on the staff.

He gave his city salary to charities and was well-known as one of the city's philanthropists. He rose from a peddler with a pack to one of the richest merchants in Chicago.

His amateur program made him well-known throughout the state. His vote in the 1956 Democratic primary for governor was about the same as that given his opponent, Herbert Paschen, in the state beyond the Chicago area.

Survivors included his widow, Anna; two daughters, Rhoda Mendelsohn and Zenia Goodman, and a son, Morris B. Sachs Jr.

Autos Collide

Cars driven by Timmis English of Harrisburg and Vernon Crabb of Golconda figured in a collision on Route 13 a short distance west of Harrisburg at 7:45 a. m. today. There were no injuries. State policeman James Fowler said the auto driven by Crabb hit the rear of the Harrisburg auto.

"I shot him in the back," the boy's statement said. "He turned and ran toward me and I shot him in the stomach. I shot three times more but he did not fall. Then I ran back to the barn and reloaded. He was crawling toward me and I shot him twice in the head."

Authorities found Fulk dead in the corn field. They said he had been shot seven times.

Jerry said he told his mother, who was celebrating her 33rd birthday Saturday, that he and his father were going to drive to town to buy some soda.

"It was the first time I ever drove a car," the youngster said. "I ran seven stop lights trying to get picked up but nobody paid any attention to me."

Jerry said the family sometimes went without food because of his father's drinking. The seventh grade pupil at a Terre Haute school said he was failing in his school work because his father refused to buy him books or a notebook.

Mayor Acts Because of Threatening Mob

Students by Hundreds Leave School After Entry of Negroes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP)—Nine Negro students integrated Central High School today but were ordered withdrawn by Mayor Woodrow Mann when a crowd of surging, angry whites at the school threatened to get out of hand.

The mayor's order was read over a portable public address system at the school. A police lieutenant said that the nine Negroes were taken out at noon by automobile.

"How'd they get 'em out? Through the roof?" the crowd jeered.

The crowd was plainly getting out of hand. Knots of 150 to 200 men, led by husky male students, were surging against city and state police lines.

One man threw a shovel through the back of a truck in which two Negroes were riding and hit one in the back of the head. It was not determined how badly the Negro was hurt.

Life Man Hit

Another man hit Bob Welsh of Life Magazine. State police chased the man half a block into a filling station and cornered him.

The crowd closed in around the state police. "Don't you hit him," they said. The state police took the man away.

Students were deserting the school in hundreds, either on their own, or with their parents, who called for them.

Lines of girls from the school were chanting like cheer leaders: "Five, six, seven, eight: we don't want to integrate."

Mayor on Radio

Mann got on the police radio and said: "This is the mayor. Tell Principal Jess Matthews that the Negroes have been withdrawn. Tell Mr. Matthews to announce that to the study body. I've talked with Virgil Blossom, and the Negroes have been withdrawn."

The nine Negro students, who enrolled at Central under a federal court-ordered integration program slipped into a side entrance while the crowd was busy beating up four Negroes—all newspapermen—at another entrance.

Their success in gaining entrance to the school touched off a walkout of white students. At least one of them protested so vehemently she was hauled off in a patrol wagon. It also provoked the crowd of whites to attack four Negroes who served as decoys so the nine Negro students could slip into the school.

One of the four, a photographer, was knocked down, kicked, beaten and had his camera smashed. A second also was knocked down and a third was kicked as they fled for safety.

No sooner were the nine Negroes, the same ones turned away by the National Guard Sept. 4,

15-Year-Old Boy Admits Fatally Clubbing Man, 80

MORRISONVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Fifteen-year old Clarence Durbin was held today on murder charges after he admitted he clubbed an 80-year-old man to death and robbed him of $53.

Durbin, of Morrisonville, was arrested while hiding in a vacant lot here about five hours after authorities found the body of Joseph Whitehouse lying in the doorway of his home Saturday night.

Whitehouse's pockets had been turned inside out and his house ransacked.

Durbin, who was held in the Christian County Jail at Taylorville, signed a statement in which he said he broke into the Whitehouse home and waited for the elderly man to return, planning to steal his car.

Complete Area Testing on Little Big Inch Pipeline

Testing operations on the Little Big Inch pipeline in this area have been completed, according to Baxter D. Goodrich, vice-president and chief engineer to Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Crews have moved equipment from the area to the next testing site and normal activity may be resumed along the pipeline right-of-way, he said.

The company wishes to express its thanks to all residents of this area for their cooperation and help in allowing the testing to proceed as planned with little or no difficulty, Mr. Goodrich said.

The tests were a necessary part of the rehabilitation of the line for reconversion to petroleum products service, the activity for which it was designed and constructed during World War II. The line has been operated in natural gas service since its purchase in 1947 by Texas Eastern.

Lose Hope For 87 at Sea

Crew of 35, 52 Cadets Aboard German Ship

PONTE DELGADA, Azores (UP)—Hope was all but abandoned today for 87 youths aboard the four-masted German training bark Pamir, hit by the full fury of hurricane Carrie and feared to have foundered in mid-Atlantic.

The 52-year-old square rigged ship apparently sank with all hands some 600 miles off the Azores. There were 35 crew men and 52 sea cadets aboard, all between 16 and 18. It was the first trip to sea for many.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
Psalm 19:8-9.

They who teach that we should follow natural impulses are not fit even to train dogs. We should not live like dogs, but like Gods.

One Way to Get 'Em

In the nature of things, getting conclusive evidence against racketers, extortionists and assorted financial flingers is often a tough job.

The biggest problem is to find witnesses willing to testify against the alleged offenders. Violence or the threat of violence serves to silence most.

This possibly helps to explain why, when all else seems to fail, the U. S. Internal Revenue Service frequently turns out to be the agency which nails the elusive offenders.

All citizens, whatever their source of income, must file income tax returns. And Internal Revenue has a devastating way of zero-ing-in on those who try to conceal income from the government. Finaglers often attempt it, usually to their sorrow.

Thus the bureau has for the second time in recent months lowered the tax books on Dave Beck, retiring Teamsters union president charged by a Senate committee with many financial irregularities.

A federal grand jury not long back indicted Beck for allegedly evading $56,000 in taxes due for 1950. New indictments add $184,- 000 to the pile, this latest sum said to be due for the years 1951 through 1953.

Though they may grumble each April 15, ordinary taxpayers may be happy to know that Internal Revenue is around to bird-dog certain citizens who seem to be above everything but the tax laws.

ELECTION YEAR TAX CUT

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson is traveling through the Near East, reporting on the explosive situation there.)

DREW PEARSON Says:
Russians Aim To Develop Syria As Model For Arab World; U. S. Farm Policy, Diplomacy Contributed To Russ Victory; American Observers Failed To Keep Step With New Syrian Order.

DAMASCUS. — (By Cable) —
The Russian goal in Syria questionably is to develop that country economically and socially as a model to the Arab world. There is no sign of Syria's adopting communism as a political doctrine.
Moscow is too smart to try this.

The Kremlin knows communism is anathema to the Moslems but it also knows these areas have lain fallow for centuries under Turkish rule and are now ripe for cultivation. Accordingly, the Kremlin has stolen the United States Marshall plan Point 4 strategy and combined both with more money than Uncle Sam ever thought of spending.

Whereas the United States offered Syria sixty million dollars through the World Bank at 5 per cent interest, Moscow offered Syria between 350 and 400 million at 2 per cent. Whereas the United States offered Syria five million dollars worth of arms, Russia offered around 150 million. True, our arms offer was an outright gift while the Russian arms are being paid for on a long-term basis but the Russian offer of a vast arsenal was gobbled up immediately.

AIDED RUSSIAN VICTORY
American farm policy plus American lackadaisical diplomacy also contributed to the Russian victory in that: (1) U. S. diplomats failed to cultivate sufficiently the young Syrian army officers who were rebelling against the country's old feudal rule, and
(2) anti-Communist Ezra Benson unwittingly played into Communist hands by stealing Syria's wheat market.

Syria had long exported wheat to southern Europe, especially Italy, but Benson — frantically casting around for ways to ease his bulging bins — negotiated a sizeable wheat deal at a cheap price with Italy. This not only usurped the Syrian market but lowered the price of wheat.

At this juncture Communist Bulgaria came along with an offer to buy Syrian wheat at five dollars per ton above the world price in exchange for various iron curtain commodities. Syria now is getting Czech arms. Hungarian telephones made in the U. S. T. T.
United Hungary seized from the United States, plus other equipment.

It was partly through this barter deal that iron curtain experts got into Syria on the most comprehensive development program seen in the Near East. It puts into effect for Syria what Harry Truman started planning for the entire Near East — namely, irrigation, roads, public works, to give the Near East the same 60,000,000 population it had under the Roman and Greek empires instead of the substandard ill-nourished 25-000,000 it has today.

Here's how the Truman plan has been usurped by iron curtain leadership: the new Syrian port of Latakia being built by the Yugoslavs at a cost of about fourteen million dollars was once a prosperous city during the time of the Crusaders. Latakia's harbor improvements, being constructed by the Yugoslavs who got the contract as low bidders, have two Danish engineers in actual charge. The swamps behind Latakia are being drained by Bulgarians at a cost of seven million dollars. Another ten million is to be spent on roads to the harbor.

SQUEEZE ON LEBANON
The net effect of this tremendous harbor development will be to squeeze out Syria's neighbor, Lebanon, whose famed seaport, Beirut, has prospered since the days of the Roman Empire. Lebanon, a good friend of the United States and the most reasonable Arab state toward Israel, is already suffering from border clashes and deteriorating relations with Syria.

Syrian development provides for a fifty-million-dollar railroad linking Latakia with the hinterland plus about thirty million for irrigation and power projects plus six new airports to be constructed before 1960 under Bulgarian supervision.

REDS IN DRIVER'S SEAT
All this is taking place in a country with which the United States enjoyed past relations and which until recently had been following American leadership. The steps by which we lost that leadership are:

(1) As early as 1954 Russia picked Syria as a key nation to woo in the Near East. The Russians knew the Syrians, isolated by mountains, were proud, ambitious, suspicious, as well as locate'd astride two American and British pipelines and old caravan routes holding the geographic key to the Near East.

(2) Arab hatred for Israel ricocheted against the United States because of U. S. friendship for Israel.

(3) Social ferment began in Syria with unrest among the peasant classes against the landlords and the opposition of young army officers against the old army clique trained under French officers, like Gen. Afid Bizri, now chief of staff, and General Serraj, gestapo chief in Syria. The young officers chafed at the easy-going attitude of their superiors.

While American observers failed to keep step with the new order, their friends were with the old order. It's the new order today, however, which is ruling Syria.
The United States is on the outside looking in as Russian experts, in the driver's seat, help to guide, develop and dominate this key country of the Arab world.

At the present moment I see little chance for a change.

LAST CHANCE?—Sensitive to competition, the owner of Bob's Service Station in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, put up this sign, warning motorists that this is their last chance to fill up for 50¢. Bob's is just one of 11 service stations in a distance of 1.4 miles.

News from the State Capitol

Test and slaughter of brucellosis infected dairy and breeding cattle more than four months has become compulsory in Bureau and Campaign counties.

This brings to 14 the number of counties which have been declared areas for certification and placed under the test and slaughter plan since the program began July 30. Counties previously declared were: Boone, Cook, DeKalb, Kendall Lake, LaSalle, Livingston, McHenry, Stephenson, Vermilion and Winnebago.

Since July 1 the state has had funds with which to aid the federal government in indemnity payments to owners of infected animals. Under this program of an infected animal may be paid one-third of the difference between the appraised value and the salvage of an animal, not to exceed $25 for a grade animal of $50 for a purebred.

At present, slaughter is not compulsory in the remaining 88 counties of Illinois.

In his August report to Governor William G. Stratton, the director of the Department of Agriculture, Stillman J. Stanard, drew attention to facts relative to Illinois agriculture of the department.

Of good news to farmers, the mid-August all commodity index of prices was three per cent above the level of August 1956 and the highest recorded in three years.

On the other hand, Stanard reported, the combined tonnage of corn, soybeans, wheat and oats is expected to be down one-fourth from last year's Illinois record high for all states of 25,023,000 tons. Average production for the period 1947-1956 was 20,143,000.

Early spring rains and a "modest" reduction in acreage are given by officials as the causes.

Asked for comment on Labor Day traffic fatalities, Governor William G. Stratton issued this statement:

"A reduction in traffic fatalities in Illinois over the Labor Day holiday is encouraging evidence that Illinois' new traffic safety program is working.

"It is particularly significant, I believe, that the percentage of reduction under the 1956 Labor Day toll is virtually the same percentage of reduction which was obtained in the month of July, the first full month after 1957 laws went into effect."

State and local public health officials are encouraging communities throughout Illinois to develop plans to prevent a possible epidemic of Asian influenza this fall.

On recommendation of the State Influenza Advisory Committee, Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director, has suggested the following priority groups to receive the vaccine while it is still in limited supply:

1. All hospital and nursing home personnel, physicians, nurses, pharmacists and public health personnel.

2. Pregnant women and infants.

3. Patients with chronic diseases.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

East wind, west wind, north wind, south wind—tornadoes, hurricanes or gentle breezes—where do they start? Where do they stop? Does anyone know? Is it important?

We do not know very much about the movement of air. Science explains more about the "why" of the blowing of the wind than it does about "where" it begins or ends. In fact we do not seem to feel that it is very important to determine where the breezes have their birth or where they cease to circulate.

We seldom argue about the wind, but we spend long hours discussing the whereabouts of God. We want to know where Heaven is and how God exists. Yet it is so much more important to know our own relationship with God. We must discover His will for us. Many of our questions are unimportant in the spiritual picture—as unimportant as where the winds begin and end.

Our deep concerns must be to accept God's way and His love, and to work to do His will.

Courage to meet the blow,

And laughter hides the tears,
It seems like only yesterday,
Instead of seven long years.
Sadly missed by his wife and

Health Insurance Plans Have Shown Phenomenal Growth in U. S. Since 1940

BY JACK V. FOX
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Do you have some sort of health insurance? Are you reasonably satisfied with it? Do you know what it costs and what it covers? If you had a really rough medical bill, would you be protected?

Would you be willing to pay higher premiums if you could get more medical coverage? Would you invest in a policy paying most bills up to $10,000? Do you think doctor visits to the home should be insurable? What about regular physical checkups?

Do you set aside part of your income for medical expenses? Are the older people in your family insured against sickness? Do you think payments for, say an appendectomy or childbirth, under present plans are adequate?

Those are some of the questions that are causing a great deal of controversy today in the insurance business, the medical profession, the government and among the public.

118 Million Covered
There are about 118 million of us today with some sort of medical insurance—about three out of every four Americans.

The growth of health insurance is one of the most spectacular developments on the social scene since the war. In 1940, only 3 million Americans had such insurance. Today there are 1,200 companies writing such policies and the competition is fierce.

Payments to persons with insurance for hospital, doctor and other medical bills last year amounted to a whopping $3,600,000,000. But it must be remembered that the nation's total medical bill for the year was more than $10 billion.

The biggest surge in health insurance recently has been in "catastrophic" or major medical coverage. It is a type that does not "pay by the stitch," but awards a lump cash sum to the policyholder up to a big amount—usually not more than $10,000. It is fairly expensive.

There are now about 10 million persons with such insurance. Many of them have it in addition to "basic" coverage for less serious illness.

Blue Cross Pioneered
The Blue Cross and Blue Shield organizations pioneered mass medical insurance in the United States, starting with a plan at Baylor University in Dallas in 1929.

By last year, Blue Cross hospitalization and Blue Shield surgery and doctor had grown to some 51 million members for the former and 38 million for the latter. There are 85 separate Blue Cross corporations in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. Blue Cross-Blue Shield represents about 41 per cent of all medical insurance written.

Blue Cross contracts provide a set daily amount for hospital board and room over a fixed period, plus certain other hospital expenses. Blue Shield has a schedule of surgical payments and some other doctors' expenses performed in hospital. Both plans are now offering broadened versions to cover medical expenses.

PMW Statewide Memorial Service Planned Oct. 12

Members of Local Union No. 35, Progressive Mine Workers of America, at Mt. Olive, are arranging for a statewide memorial service to be held at the graveside of famed Mother Jones in Miners' Cemetery on October 12 in Mt. Olive.

William Lorenz, president of L. U. 35, and chairman of the events for the day, has extended an invitation to all members of organized labor to be present for the occasion, which will feature an address by Ray Dupee, president of the Progressive Mine Workers of America; Mrs. Rose Koniak, president of the Progressive Women's Auxiliary, and an invocation and benediction by the Rev. Elmer Sanders, of the Mt. Olive Church of The Ascension.

Honors will be paid at the ceremonies to Mother Mary Jones, one of the great labor heroes of this country; to the men who participated in the Virden uprising against oppressive labor conditions at the coal mines in that area; and the many men and women of the Progressive Mine Workers who died in developing the Progressive Mine Workers of America to its present status.

Individual insurance companies in total recently have surpassed Blue Cross-Blue Shield in volume of business. They now insure 51.7 per cent.

Their policies are of great range, but in general they differ in that the policy holder usually receives a cash award within certain limitations rather than having a pre-determined schedule of what is payable.

The third major type insurer is typified by the Health Insurance Plan of New York whose main distinction is that it is formed by doctors themselves. The policy holder must accept the services of one of the member doctors. Others of this type are Group Health Insurance of Washington, Kaiser Permanente and the Ross-Loomis Clinic in California.

The government, of course, provides a type of health insurance through the Veterans Administration whose services are available to the 21 million veterans now living. There are also a few labor union insurance associations.

The American Medical Association has not endorsed any plan. It took an opinion sampling of 8,000 physicians on health insurance in 1954. The majority gave the opinion that insurance should cover "a substantial portion but less than the full cost" of medical and surgical care.

The majority also said that most benefit schedules fell below the normal charges of physicians. There are about 180,000 practicing physicians in the United States. A 1955 survey by Medical Economics showed their average net income to be: general practitioners $14,814; specialists $18,000.

Most observers say the American system has its strengths, also its weaknesses and inequities. But the insurance companies point out this is a very complicated field.

Said one: "While a life insurance policy requires a death to start a claim, a hospital-medical policy requires only the policy and a few aches and pains."

U. S. Strongest In Peacetime History, Ike Says

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower said today that the United States has "the most powerful military establishment in our peacetime history."

The President made the statement, which was released by the White House, at a meeting of the nation's top-level National Security Council.

The occasion for his remarks was the 10th anniversary this month of the National Security Act of 1947. This act unified the armed services and also created the NSC.

Recalling that the act was passed by a Republican Congress and approved by a Democratic president (Truman), the President said the act "has shown how a free nation can organize to preserve its national security and at the same time retain and strengthen its democratic values and institutions."

He said the organization established under the act was contributed to continuing U. S. efforts since World War II "for just and lasting peace in the world."

The President said the basic purpose of the act was to provide coordination and unified direction of the armed services under a single secretary of defense.

"Under this constitutional concept of a single civilian head, the United States is effectively maintaining the most powerful military establishment in our peacetime history," he said.

Nine Negroes Ordered From Little Rock School

inside the school than white students started a walkout.

President Eisenhower and Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. discussed for 15 minutes in Washington today the events which occurred in Little Rock this morning.

Gov. Orval Faubus called out the National Guard Sept. 2 and announced that he had ordered the troops to prevent the integration of Central High, which opened the next day, because there was sure to be violence if Negroes entered.

Mob Attacks Deceys
Faubus moved the guard Friday night a few hours after a federal district judge put him under an injunction that gave him a choice of letting Central High be integrated or be arrested for contempt.

Faubus, at the southern governors' conference at Sea Island, Ga., said the violence that happened today was "the thing I acted to prevent."

He said there was no plan at present to call out the National Guard again. Acting Gov. Nathan Gordon, in Little Rock, said he was "uneasy" but local authorities had not asked him to call out the guard again and he wouldn't without a request.

The four Negroes who played decoys sneaked toward the 15th Street side entrance to the school. While the mob was working on them, the nine students slipped through an entrance on the other side of the building.

Reports Fights Inside School
School officials did not immediately disclose what went on inside the building, but one white girl telephoned her mother, who was at work:

"Mother, come and get me; they're fighting something awful inside the school. Boys are fighting in the gym and one girl has been beaten."

10 Cars of Rock Island Rocket Derail; 30 Hurt

PEABODY, Kan. (UP)—Ten cars of the Rock Island Railroad's twin-stair Rocket passenger train derailed at high speed early today, injuring about 30 persons.

No fatalities were reported in the wreck and authorities said none of the injured appeared to be in critical condition. The injured were rushed to hospitals in near by Newton, Maria and Wichita.

R. Fisher, Rock Island station agent here, said the cars jumped the track about 200 yards from the depot and skidded to a halt at the station.

Five of the passenger cars toppled over onto their sides and the others tilted at crazy angles.

Fisher said the Minneapolis, Minn., to Houston, Tex., train does not stop at Peabody but speeds through the yards at 60 to 80 miles per hour.

Among the cars was a private coach containing Harold Barry, purchasing manager of the railroad, and his family, who was making an inspection tour of the line.

"The good Lord sure was with these people," Barry said.

Engineer W. A. Dawson, 68, Herington, Kan., said he had "no sensation" of a wreck and was unaware the cars derailed until the baggage car behind the double diesel engine units began rocking.

The uninjured passengers among the 87 persons aboard the train were taken to Wichita by bus and continued their journey.

Seek Lead to Mysterious Death At Murphysboro

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (UP)—Jackson county authorities planned to question several persons today in seeking a lead to the mysterious death of a 52-year-old Murphysboro hotel operator.

Mrs. Mabel Cochran died Saturday of a skull fracture and concussion inflicted by an unknown assailant Thursday night.

Authorities at first thought she had been shot, but an autopsy showed she had been hit with some object, Coroner Gale Williams said. Sheriff's deputies said two men who apparently checked out of the hotel Thursday night are still being sought for questioning.

The room the men occupied was sealed tight. The windows were taped and a chimney was stuffed with paper. A fan was running, leading authorities to think the men may have been narcotics users.

Air Force Officer Under Guard Awaiting Review of Conviction

SHREVEPORT, La. (UP)—An Air Force officer was under maximum security guard here today, awaiting review of his conviction for trying to peddle secret air force data to Russia.

Capt. George H. French, a veteran of World War II and holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross, was convicted by a court martial Friday. The 2nd Air Force, a branch of the Strategic Air Command, said French will be held until the unit's commander, Maj. Gen. George W. Munday, reviews the proceedings.

French was sentenced to a dishonorable discharge, life imprisonment and forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

A spokesman for the 2nd Air Force said French dropped a letter on the Russian Embassy grounds in Washington, giving a hotel as his address and offering to furnish certain information for $27,000.

The letter was intercepted by American agents, the Air Force said, and FBI and Air Force security agents arrested French at the hotel.

An extensive investigation followed, then the four-day hush-hush court-martial. The investigation indicated, a source said, that French "at no time actually made contact with a representative of the Soviet Union."

The Air Force said money troubles apparently figured heavily in French's action.

In Mount Vernon, N. Y., French's wife said she planned to protest the "secrecy" which shrouded her husband's trial.

Asserting she will stand by her husband, Mrs. French said: "I should have been informed of the charges against him, according to the democratic way."

The 1958 license plates will be white with purple numerals.

The last Legislature increased the fees for a certificate of title, duplicate title, corrected title and junking certificate to $1 and motorcycle registrations to $6.50.

Delay Hoffa Trial to Oct. 15

NEW YORK (UP)—Midwest Teamster boss James Hoffa today asked for an indefinite continuance of his trial on federal wire tap charges because "the atmosphere is saturated with prejudice."

But Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan set Oct. 15 for trial of Hoffa and two others on charges they tapped phones at Hoffa's Detroit headquarters.

Judge Ryan gave Hoffa's attorneys until Oct. 2 to file motions in support of their argument that the leading contender for president of the Teamsters Union could not get a fair trial.

U. S. Prosecutor Paul W. Williams agreed to delay the trial until after the Teamsters convention opening Sept. 30 in Miami Beach. But he argued that the case should go to trial promptly once the union gathering is over.

Hoffa parried questions on whether he would withdraw from the presidential race if his victory would mean expulsion of the Teamsters by the AFL-CIO.

Sooners Roll to 41st Straight Win; Five Big Ten Teams Play This Week

By United Press
The national champions from Oklahoma, already past possibly their biggest hurdle of the football season, relax this week while five powerhouses from the Big Ten make their 1957 debut and take up the chase.

Oklahoma rolled over Pittsburgh, 26-0, Saturday for its 41st straight victory with a typical blow-em-down Sooner attack. Oklahoma's swift backs ran for 310 yards and three of the four passes they completed went for touchdowns in the outstanding game of the first collegiate week end of the fall.

Now, with the Sooners idle until an Oct. 5 meeting with Iowa State, attention turns to the Big Ten, the traditional area of football strength which should be tougher than ever this year.

Big Ten Opens
Making their bow on Saturday are Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, and the Rose Bowl champions from Iowa. All meet intersectional foes except Michigan State, which plays host to Indiana in the conference opener.

Michigan, a veteran team with depth to spare, plays Southern California, which took a 20-0 drubbing from conference champion Oregon State on Saturday. Minnesota, strong at every position except halfback, faces Washington, which played a 6-6 tie with Colorado.

McKiever Featured
Ohio State takes on Texas Christian, which had to settle for a 13-13 tie when Kansas connected on a touchdown pass in the last second of play. Iowa, ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl this season, gets the only breather of the lot, a Utah State team which beat Hawaii two weeks ago and has been idle since.

The nationally televised game of the week brings together Stanford, a 46-7 winner over often pesty San Jose State, and Northwestern, which features breakaway halfback Bob McKiever, all five feet, four inches and 158 pounds of him, and little else.

The three major conferences in the South feature games which may go a long way toward crowning champions. Tennessee, the pre-season favorite in the Southeastern Conference, tests its single-wing power against dangerous Auburn in the curtain-raiser for each.

Duke, more than ever the Atlantic Coast Conference standout after a 26-14 win over South Carolina, runs into Virginia, which held West Virginia to a 6-6 tie. West Virginia, defending its Southern Conference laurels, should get an acid test from Virginia Tech, a rising power which upset Tulane, 14-13, Friday night.

Packers Gain Tie with Steelers

By United Press
The Green Bay Packers, only unbeaten team in the circuit, were crowned the surprise champions of pro football's "Grapefruit league" today, thanks to a clutch touchdown pass by former Alabama star Bart Starr.

The Packers, worst defensive team in the National Football League last season, wound up with a record of five wins and one tie in six exhibition games, pressed by Los Angeles and San Francisco at 5-1-0.

Starr kept the Green Bay record unsullied when he tossed a 16-yard T.D. pass in the last minute of play Saturday night to gain a 10-10 tie with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Minneapolis. Starr connected with Joe Johnson who ran the last six yards.

In another Saturday night game, the Chicago Cardinals beat Baltimore, 28-21. In two games Sunday, the San Francisco Forty-Niners won a punch-filled battle from the Philadelphia Eagles, 17-14, and the world champion New York Giants throttled the Detroit Lions, 17-0.

At Minneapolis Saturday, Pittsburgh scored all its points in the second period on a one-yard touchdown plunge by Fran Rogel and a 23-yard field goal by Gary Glick. Fred Cone of the Packers cut the margin to 10-3 with a 35-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in the first half and things stayed that way until Starr's winning toss.

Pennant Races Could Be Decided By Tonight; Cards, Braves Open 3-Game Series

By United Press
This may be the last day of the 1957 major league pennant races—if Milwaukee and Kansas City win tonight, the final six days are simply for the formal records.

The New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox, Milwaukee Braves and St. Louis Cardinals all won single games Sunday, so the Yanks clinched at least a tie for the American League pennant, while the Braves lead a five-game lead over the Cards with six games to go—and the Cards run into the Braves in a decisive three-game series starting tonight.

The Yankees, who are idle the next two days, need win only one game or the White Sox need lose only one to settle the AL flag. The Chisox play at Kansas City tonight and the Athletics, who strongly resent being called the Yankee "farm club," can win it for the Yanks by downing the Chicagoans.

Manager Fred Hutchinson named lefty Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who has won eight and lost 10, as the Cardinal starter in this "must-win" series from the Card point of view. The Braves, with a six-game winning streak and confident they will win their first flag since coming to the Midwest from Boston, named Lew Burdette (16-9) as their starter.

A's Win Fourth
In yesterday's games, the Yanks beat Boston 5-1, when Red Sox pitchers walked four runs home in the sixth inning; the White Sox stayed "alive" by taking Cleveland, 9-5; Baltimore defeated Washington, 6-5; and Kansas City ran its winning to four straight by beating Detroit twice, 4-3 and 2-1.

Milwaukee went 10 innings to beat the pesky Chicago Cubs, 9-7; the tenacious Cards came from behind to trip the Cincinnati Reds, 7-5; Brooklyn beat the Phillies, 7-3; and Pittsburgh happily accepted four unearned runs to defeat the New York Giants, 5-1.
